FEAST DAYS THIS WEEK

3 Aug St Eusebius of Vercelli (283-371) bishop was born in Sardinia. At Vercelli he set up a kind of monastic rule for the clergy to live in common with other priests. He was exiled by the emperor and suffered many hardships, but was eventually restored to his diocese.

3 Aug St Peter Julian Eymard (1811-68) was a French priest who had lifelong devotion to Christ's eucharistic presence and for promoting eucharistic adoration. In 1856 he founded the Blessed Sacrament Fathers.

4 Aug St Jean-Baptiste-Marie Vianney, Curé of Ars (1786 - 1859) was the son of a peasant farmer. In 1818 he was sent to be the parish priest of Ars-en-Dombes, an isolated village some distance from Lyon, and stayed there for the rest of his life because his parishioners would not let him leave. Such was his reputation for insight into his penitents' souls and their futures, that he had to spend up to eighteen hours a day in the confessional.
The tens of thousands of people who came to visit this obscure parish priest turned Ars into a place of pilgrimage. The French State recognised his eminence by awarding him the medal of the Légion d'Honneur in 1848, and he sold it and gave the money to the poor.

Aug 6 Transfiguration of Our Lord Jesus Christ - St Matthew says Jesus "was transfigured before them. His face shone as the sun: his garments became white as snow".

Aug 7 St Sixtus II, Pope, and his Companions - Sixtus was elected Pope in 257. Twelve months later as he was celebrating Mass in the catacomb of St Calixtus, he was seized by the authorities and beheaded along with four of his deacons.

Aug 8 St Dominic was born Spain about 1170. He was noted for prayer, penance, and an exemplary life. In a time of violent crusades he sought the reconciliation of Albigensian heretics through instruction and prayer. He established the Order of Preachers (Dominicans) to revitalise the Church through study, teaching, preaching, and prayer.
