FEAST DAYS THIS WEEK

28 Feb – St Oswald (912-992) was a monk of Danish origin who became bishop of Worcester, and later archbishop of York.

1 Mar – St David (c. 500-589) is the patron saint of Wales, where he was an abbot and bishop. He is reputed to have founded a number of monasteries, of strict regime. Several Irish saints were his pupils, and he seems to have influenced monastic development in Ireland.

3 Mar – St Katharine Drexel (1858-1955) was an American nun born in Philadelphia to a rich banking family. In 1891, at the age of 33, she founded the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament, an order dedicated to mission work among Indians and black people. (A survey of the situation in the United States at this time described “250,000 Indians neglected, if not practically abandoned, and over nine million of negroes still struggling through the aftermath of slavery”). She spent her entire life and her entire fortune to this work, opening schools, founding a university, and funding many chapels, convents and monasteries. By the time she died there were more than 500 Sisters teaching in 63 schools throughout the United States.

4 Mar – St Casimir (1458 - 1484) was the second son of King Casimir IV of Poland. He assiduously cultivated the Christian virtues, especially chastity and generosity to the poor. Zealous in faith, he had a particular devotion to the Eucharist and the Virgin Mary. For several years, while his father was away in Lithuania (the Kings of Poland at this time were also Grand Dukes of Lithuania), he ruled Poland with great prudence and justice. He died of tuberculosis on 4 March 1484.

5 Mar – St Kieran, or Ciarán of Saighir, was an Irish monk and bishop, and one of the Twelve Apostles of Ireland. He is the patron saint of the diocese of Ossory.

6 Mar – St Colette (1381-1447) sought a radically austere life after the example of St Francis and St Clare. She became the one who restored the Poor Clares to the original Rule of St Clare. At the heart of that Rule is radical poverty: even the community does not own anything.

LENT PRAYER

(which some of our younger parishioners might like to record and send on to us for use in our Masses during Lent)

Heavenly Father,

Thank you for being so generous and for giving us so many good things.

We are sorry that we are not always generous with others.

We pray for those who are sick.

We pray for those who have no friends.

Please help us to be kind, to do our best, and to help others when we can.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A FEW THINGS YOU CAN DO FOR LENT

1 - Read the Sunday readings before Mass. (See universalis.com/Mass)

2 - Don't have time to read all three readings? Then just read the Gospel.

3 - Ring a neighbour to say hello and see how they are doing.
