FEAST DAYS THIS WEEK

13 June - St Anthony of Padua (1195? - 1231) was an Augustinian monk who was so impressed by the martyrdom of five Franciscans who had been spreading the faith in Morocco that he became a Franciscan friar himself. He met Saint Francis of Assisi at the General Chapter of the Franciscans in 1221. He became a teacher of theology and a brilliant and popular preacher in southern France and Italy, a servant of the poor, and a worker of miracles. He is also the patron saint of the lost and found.

14 June - St Davnet is the patron saint of the diocese of Clogher. Nothing is known about her for certain. She may have lived and died at Tydavnet in Co. Monaghan, possibly in the seventh century.

19 June - St Romuald (c.951 - 1027) joined a Benedictine monastery but made himself unpopular there by trying to get the lax monks to mend their ways and so, with the permission of his abbot, became a wandering hermit. In a constant fight against the degenerate monasteries of the day, he founded hermitages and monasteries where a life of prayerful solitude could be truly lived. The monastery at Camaldoli, which he founded and where he remained as abbot for a number of years, became the first house of an order of hermits which still exists. But Romuald took to his wanderings once more, and died in a monastery he himself had founded at Val di Castro - as he wished, alone in his cell.
