

Moynalvey Kiltale Parish

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done
and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

THE MYSTERY OF FAITH

My Lord and my God.

HAPPY MOTHERS' DAY

Loving God, we thank you for mothers, for all they mean or have meant, for the love they have shown for the care they have given.
and for the part they play in our lives. Amen.

FUNDAMENTAL RIGHT

Every one of us has a right to our life. It is not given to us by the Constitution of Ireland or by any law. We have it 'as of right', whether we are wealthy or poor, healthy or sick. All human beings have it. For us as a society to now declare that any category of human being should have that right taken from them would be a shocking step. It effectively says that unborn children do not exist or, if they do, they do not count. That is a manifest injustice.

CHILDMINDER with own children available to mind school going children or younger from Moynalvey or surrounding area in

FEAST DAYS THIS COMING WEEK

11 March ST AENGUS OF TALLAGHT (750-824) is honoured for his holiness and writings.
17 March ST PATRICK (385 - 461) was born in Roman Britain. As a missionary bishop, he endured many hardships and faced opposition even from his friends and fellow Christians. He worked hard to teach, convert and bring peace to local chieftains and their families. He is remembered for his simplicity and pastoral care, for his humble trust in God, and for his fearless preaching of the gospel to the very people who had enslaved him in his youth.
